PURPOSE OF THIS HANDBOOK

This goal of this handbook is to clarify as much as possible the process of preparing for the joyous occasion of your child's Bar/Bat Mitzvah. It is very important that you read it carefully, so that you, your family, and (most importantly) your child, are fully prepared for the event.

This handbook may seem lengthy, but this is necessary. If you have not already experienced a Bar/Bat Mitzvah with an older child, you will be surprised to learn how complicated the process is and how much preparation is required.

Most families are able to follow the guidelines in this handbook. If you are unable to do so, it is very important that you discuss any and all deviations with your tutor and the Rabbi.

LETTER FROM RABBI KNAPP SCHECHTER

Dear Parents:

Bar/Bat Mitzvah is an important moment in the life of your child and of your family. Your child will now be viewed as an adult in the Jewish community. The tradition of marking the Bar/Bat Mitzvah is observed in our community in a public fashion at a time when the Torah is read in the presence of the community.

The synagogue community views Bar/Bat Mitzvah as an opportunity for the student to lead our community with the skills that have been developed in our school and in life. The goal of the synagogue program is to prepare the young person to read from the Torah, from the Haftorah and to conduct parts of the Shabbat service as a Shaliach Tzibbur (prayer leader). From the moment that the Bar/Bat Mitzvah reaches the age of majority it is hoped that your child will participate actively in all Shabbat and holiday services as well as participating regularly in the synagogue minyan.

It is our hope that this manual will be helpful to you as you plan for your child's upcoming Bar/Bat Mitzvah. Please feel free to call upon the synagogue staff to assist you in your planning and preparation for this important milestone event.

BAR/BAT/ MITZVAH TIMELINE

1 – 3 years prior to Bar/Bat Mitzvah

- ◇ Bar/Bat Mitzvah date is assigned.

1 year prior to Bar/Bat Mitzvah

- Engage and coordinate meeting times with the tutor
- Begin regular attendance at adult services on Friday evenings and Saturday mornings. See page 6 for details.
- Students are contacted to begin classes with tutor.
- Parents and students meet with Rabbi to begin conversations about the student's parashah.
- Parents are to select tutor from approved list. Parents pay tutor directly

In fall of Vav year (about one year prior to Bar/Bat Mitzvah)

- Rabbi will meet with the entire Vav class and their parents, to review the Bar Mitzvah process and answer questions.

8-10 months prior to Bar/Bat Mitzvah

- Parents and students should submit a proposal to the Rabbi for an acceptable Mitzvah project.
- Mitzvah project begins after approval by Rabbi.

8-12 months prior to Bar/Bat Mitzvah

- Lessons begin. There are normally 25 one-hour lessons.

6 months prior to the Bar/ Bat Mitzvah

- Child's family beings to join in part of the monthly meetings with Rabbi.

4 months prior to Bar/Bat Mitzvah

- Complete Date Reservation Form (Appendix A) and submit to the office.

- Contact the office to discuss catering options for Kiddush for your child's Bar/Bat Mitzvah.

3 months prior to Bar/Bat Mitzvah

- Student begins to write d'var Torah. This talk will be given on Saturday morning.
- Student begins to write speech for Friday night. This is optional. Possible topics include the meaning of a Bar/Bat Mitzvah, a Jewish hero, or a description of the child's Mitzvah project (see page 12).
- Parent begins to write the parental speech, to be delivered on Saturday morning.

Note: These must be reviewed with the Rabbi. Please bring to a scheduled meeting.

2 months prior to Bar/Bat Mitzvah

- Decide who will receive honors at your child's ceremony.
- Ensure student has a tallit and kippah for the Bar/Bat Mitzvah ceremony.

1 month prior to Bar/Bat Mitzvah

- End of mitzvah project.

3 weeks prior to Bar/Bat Mitzvah

- Student submits a draft of the d'var Torah to Rabbi.
- Parents submit Family Information Sheet (Appendix F) to the office.
- Parents submit list of all honorees (including English name, full Hebrew names of the person and both his/her parents, and relationship for the Bar/Bat Mitzvah) to the head of ritual committee and Rabbi. It would be appreciated if these were submitted on index cards.
- If parents choose to make a parent speech, the draft must be submitted to the rabbi for review

Final week prior to Bar/Bat Mitzvah

- Contact office to review/confirm arrangements for the day.
- Review and practice final draft of d'var Torah with Rabbi.
- Participate in "dry run" of the Bar/Bat Mitzvah with tutor and Rabbi.

BECOMING A BAR/BAT MITZVAH

The following congregational standards have been set to meet the goals stated in our philosophy:

1. In keeping with our Jewish tradition, all Jewish children, whether Jewish by birth or by conversion, who are reaching or have passed their thirteenth birthday may be called to the Torah for an aliyah at one of the services when the Torah is traditionally read.
2. Central to the theme of the Bar/Bat Mitzvah is the value of a Jewish education. The child must have already begun his or her fifth year of instruction at Congregation Or Shalom Religious School or its equivalent, or be enrolled in a Jewish Day School. The student must currently be enrolled and in good standing in the religious school (in the Vav class) or day school.
3. The family must be a full and current member in good standing of Congregation Or Shalom to be entitled to Bar/Bat Mitzvah privileges.
4. Approximately 8-12 months prior to your child's Bar/Bat Mitzvah individualized training will begin. At that time all financial obligations must be current.
5. To ensure familiarity with our Shabbat service, the child is required to attend regular Friday night and Shabbat morning services at Congregation Or Shalom. Parents and families are encouraged to attend with their children. We require that children attend services three times per month, during the year preceding their Bar/Bat Mitzvahs. These 3 times should include at least one Friday night service each month and one Saturday morning service each month. The Bar/Bat Mitzvah student should be accompanied by one or both parents and their siblings.
6. In the months prior to the Bar/Bat mitzvah celebration, the child is required to plan and complete an activity which fulfills a particular Mitzvah. Families often participate in these activities as well. The Mitzvah Project should be planned and approved by the Rabbi. This project should last at least 6 months.

7. It is a mitzvah for a young man to use tefillin during weekday morning services. As an egalitarian congregation, we encourage young women to wear tefillin as well.
8. It is our tradition at Or Shalom that the families of the class of students marking their Bar/Bat Mitzvah join together to present the synagogue with a gift. While the decision about the actual gift will be made by the class families, the Rabbi and the leadership of the synagogue will provide the Bar/Bat Mitzvah class families a list of items that will be of special meaning and benefit to the synagogue.

ASSIGNMENT OF DATE

Approximately three years prior to the Bar/Bat Mitzvah the Rabbi will choose a date for your child's Bar/Bat Mitzvah. The date will correspond as closely as possible to your child's Hebrew birth date. Once assigned, any requests to change a date must be made to the rabbi. Any changes in date must be confirmed in writing from the rabbi before the change becomes effective.

SELECTING A TUTOR

Approximately one year prior to the Bar/Bat Mitzvah, the family must select a tutor for the Bar/Bat Mitzvah student, from the list of tutors approved by Or Shalom. Please contact the Rabbi for an updated list.

TRAINING OF STUDENTS

Approximately 8-12 months prior to the Bar/Bat Mitzvah ceremony, students will be contacted to begin individual classes. These sessions will meet for about one hour weekly, up to the time of the Bar/Bat Mitzvah service. The scheduling of the private lessons will be mutually convenient for parents, student, and teacher. Lessons will not be scheduled during Religious School classes. Lessons may or may not be scheduled during school vacations, depending upon the schedule of the tutor and the student.

If your child has a special educational need, please contact the Rabbi in advance.

Note that attendance at regular Shabbat services is considered to be an integral part of the training of the students. Only by attending services regularly will the child learn and understand the sequence and choreography of our services. This is also an important opportunity to become familiar with our melodies and customs.

MEETINGS WITH THE RABBI

At the beginning of the student's Vav year in our religious school, the Rabbi will schedule a meeting with all the class students and their parents, to review the Bar/Bat Mitzvah process and answer questions.

One year prior to the bar/ bat mitzvah the Rabbi will begin to meet with the student monthly. At six months the family will be asked to join for part of the one time a month meeting. These meetings are to review their progress and to answer questions which may arise. Parents who feel additional meetings with the Rabbi are needed, are encouraged to contact her directly, to schedule such meetings.

ROLE OF BAR/BAT MITZVAH IN SERVICE

It is a tradition at Congregation Or Shalom that a Bar/Bat Mitzvah candidate may participate in the service to the extent of his/her abilities. The determination of this ability will be made by the Rabbi and tutor in concert with the parents of the Bar/Bat Mitzvah.

The following outline describes the minimum required participation for a Bar/Bat Mitzvah child at our synagogue at various services. In special cases, at the discretion of the Rabbi, some of these requirements may be relaxed.

Friday Evening

1. Act as a shaliach tzibbur (prayer leader) for all or part of the Kabbalat Shabbat and Maariv services.
2. Prepare and deliver a personal statement on the value and importance of the Bar/Bat Mitzvah. (Optional.)

Shabbat Morning

1. Reading the maftir from the Torah. (*)
2. Recitation of the blessings before and after the reading of the Torah. (*)
3. Chanting of the haftorah (*)
4. Recitation of the blessings before and after the Haftorah. (*)

5. Preparation and delivery of a personal D'var Torah on the connection the Bar/Bat Mitzvah candidate has with that week's Torah reading. (*)
6. Acting as a shaliach tzibbur (prayer leader) for the Torah service and Musaf service.
7. The Bar/Bat mitzvah may act as a shaliach tzibbur for Schacharit if he/she has accomplished all of the above listed requirements.

Important: Only the items marked with an asterisk are required. The others are optional and depend on the child's individual abilities.

SERVICE PROCEDURES AND PREPARATION

Shabbat Morning

1. The Shabbat morning service begins promptly at 9:15 a.m. Note that we begin the morning services on Bar/Bat Mitzvahs 15 minutes earlier than our normal starting time (which is 9:30), because this service tends to run a bit longer when we celebrate Bar Mitzvahs.
2. The Bar/Bat Mitzvah Family may receive Torah honors during the service. Seven aliyot (individuals or pairs) may be assigned for blessings over the Torah. Additional honors include lifting the Torah (Magbiah) and dressing the Torah (Golel). Also, people may be honored by opening and closing the Ark, and the leading of special prayers as indicated below. Honors are as follows:
 - a. Open and Close the Ark at the beginning of the Torah Service.
 - b. Kohen - First aliyah
 - c. Levi - Second aliyah
 - d. Shlishi - Third aliyah
 - e. Revii - Fourth aliyah
 - f. Chamishi - Fifth aliyah
 - g. Shishi - Sixth aliyah
 - h. Shevii - Seventh aliyah
 - i. Maftir - The aliyah given to the Bar/Bat Mitzvah
 - j. Hagbah - Lift the Torah
 - k. Gelilah - Tie the Torah
 - l. Open and Close the Ark at the end of the Torah Service.
 - m. English reading of the prayer for our Country (page 415 in the Siddur Sim Shalom prayer book).

- n. English or Hebrew reading of the prayer for Israel (page 416 or 417 in the Siddur Sim Shalom prayer book).
- o. Prayer for peace or prayer for the congregation (page 415 or 417 in the Siddur Sim Shalom prayer book).

These honors will be assigned by the parents of the Bar/Bat Mitzvah.

3. Honors (b) through (h) require the honoree to recite blessings in Hebrew. Those being given the honor should be aware of this requirement before they accept and should prepare adequately.
4. Everyone coming to the Bimah to lead a part of the service or to have an honor must wear a head covering. Jewish males must also wear a tallit. Jewish females should wear one. Only Jews may wear a tallit. Again, please assure that your guests are prepared.
5. The person given the honor of lifting the Torah must be strong enough to accomplish this task. During the fall months the Torah is heavy on the left side and during the spring the weight is heavy on the right side.
6. All honorees must be Jewish by birth or by conversion, with the exception of honorees (m), (n), and (o). If in doubt, please consult the Rabbi. We also permit non-Jewish parents and non-Jewish grandparents to accompany their spouses on the Bimah.
7. The Bar/Bat Mitzvah service provides the ideal opportunity for family participation. It is important that family members carefully review and practice the Torah Blessings so that they are comfortable with them within the context of the service. Additional help is available by contacting the Rabbi or tutor.

To avoid embarrassment to all, honors in the service, i.e. aliyah-Magbiah/Golel, should not be assigned to friends or family members who do not know how to perform them correctly.

8. All men should wear a kippah at all times while inside our synagogue. Each man who receives an aliyah should wear appropriate synagogue attire as well as a kippah and a tallit.

9. All women and young girls should be dressed appropriately e.g. no short skirts. Shoulders must be covered in the sanctuary. Each woman who receives an aliyah should wear a head covering. The wearing of a tallit by women is encouraged.
10. Candy may be thrown on the Bar/Bat Mitzvah at the conclusion of the reading of the maftir. Please distribute the candy during the reading of the preceding aliyah (i.e. last aliyah before Bar/Bat Mitzvah child), so that it is minimally disruptive.
11. On a Shabbat that we celebrate Bar and Bat Mitzvahs, Saturday morning services usually conclude between noon and 12:15 PM. If you are planning a luncheon away from the synagogue, please base your plans on leaving the synagogue no earlier than 12:45 PM. so that you and your guests have time for Kiddush. If you are renting a bus to take guests to the luncheon, please instruct the bus company not to park in front of the sanctuary door.

OPTIONAL FRIDAY NIGHT SPEECH

Optionally, the Bar/Bat Mitzvah may deliver a short speech on Friday evening. The purpose of this speech is two-fold:

- a. To demonstrate an understanding of the Bar/Bat Mitzvah in the lives of Jews.
- b. To find a personal connection to the event.

The message should suggest both that the student understands the Jewish significance of the day and show that there is a connection between the event and the life of the child.

In order to assure that the tone and message of the speech are appropriate the student should submit the speech for the Rabbi's review three weeks before the service. That will allow time for editing and revisions.

Possible topics for this speech include:

- What my Bar/Bat Mitzvah means to me.
- A Jewish hero or role model.
- The child's mitzvah project.

D'VAR TORAH

We require the Bar/Bat Mitzvah to deliver a D'var Torah on Saturday morning. This short speech should relate to the Torah reading of the day. Again, the purpose of this speech is two-fold:

- i. To demonstrate an understanding of the Torah reading for that day. The speech should highlight the main issues of the passage as a way of introducing the reading to the Congregation.
- ii. To find in the passage a personal connection. The student should not only summarize the passage but find a message of personal meaning in the reading. The message might relate to the student's interests or activities.

The message should suggest both that the student understands the Jewish significance of the day and show that there is a connection between the message of the reading and the life of the child.

If the child does not intend to deliver a talk on Friday evening, then the d'var Torah should include a few sentences about the child's mitzvah project.

In order to assure that the tone and message of the speech are appropriate the student should submit the speech for the Rabbi's review three weeks before the service. That will allow time for editing and revisions.

MITZVAH PROJECT

The goal of the Mitzvah Project is to broaden the student's awareness of his or her place in society and how at this moment of transitioning into adulthood, he or she can contribute to improving the world. Ideally the project should involve a real hands-on commitment to working, in a setting that will teach the young person about the values of work, compassion, understanding, and the need to be cognizant of the needs of others.

People often mistake mitzvah as "good deed." But it really means "commandment." Therefore, becoming a Bar/Bat Mitzvah literally means "son or daughter of the commandments". What that means is that when you are 13 you become responsible for doing the things that God commands of us, many of them things that are in fact, acts of lovingkindness (gemilut hasadim).

The goals of the Mitzvah project are as follows:

1. To have students experience mitzvot that they will be able to incorporate into their lives.
2. To give students an understanding of the Jewish values that flow from the Jewish view of the responsibilities of mitzvot.
3. To help students understand what is uniquely Jewish about mitzvot.

We want to give your child a knowledge and an experiences of a wide range of mitzvot and the Jewish values that these mitzvot promote.

In the year of their Bnei Mitzvah, each student will choose two different mitzvot to fulfill throughout the year of Zayin class, one from each of the following categories:

Mitzvot between People and God
Mitzvot between People and People

Fulfilling the two selected mitzvot will become the student's Mitzvah Project.

Approximately ten months before the scheduled date of your child's Bar/Bat Mitzvah, the family and the prospective Bar/Bat Mitzvah should submit a proposal to the Rabbi for an acceptable Mitzvah Project. The student should discuss his/her choices with both the family and the Rabbi and should receive their approval. The Rabbi will schedule follow up meetings with the student to make sure that the project is progressing.

The numbers of hours devoted to fulfilling these mitzvot should not be less than 18 (chai).

The student should choose one mitzvah to write about. This will become the student's Mitzvah Report. We recommend recording notes regularly throughout the project, to help the student remember his/her experiences, thoughts and feelings during the process. Then later, when writing the Mitzvah Report, the student will be able to provide sufficient details.

The student will present his/her report at the end of the school year. We will have a special presentation of all the reports of the Zayin class at that time.

The following is an outline of the report:

Introduction: Description of the Mitzvah that you completed. What is the commandment that tells us to perform this mitzvah? Why did you choose to perform this mitzvah?

Description: Explain what you did as you completed this project. Where were you when you performed this Mitzvah? How much time did it take? Was it hard or easy? Explain? What was the most satisfying aspect of your project? What was the most difficult part of the Mitzvah?

Conclusion: How did this Mitzvah help you change? What did you learn about yourself? What did you learn about others? How did you help others? What was Jewish about your project? Explain why your project was a mitzvah? How has your project helped you better understand what it means to be a Bar/Bat Mitzvah? How has your project helped you better understand what it means to be a Jew?

How do you think that completing this project will change the way you will act in the future?

If possible include some pictures of yourself performing the mitzvah. If you cannot take pictures or if you prefer, draw a picture or create a collage about the Mitzvah you performed.

Please keep in contact with the Rabbi

PARENTAL TALK

A speech by a parent may also be delivered during the service. This is a choice that each family can make. Some families choose to have a parent speak during the service and many families decline this opportunity. The speech may be offered by either of the child's parents even if one of the parents is not Jewish. The speech will be included in the service at a moment of the Rabbi's choosing. The purpose of the speech is to enable a parent to offer special thoughts to the child. During the speech the parent may share with those present the special meaning which this day has for the family. The speech should attempt to reference the morning's Torah reading. Only one speech per family, please!

The parent's speech will be delivered towards the end of the service. Therefore, it should not be more than a few minutes long, as guests and congregants will have been sitting for over two hours at this point. If desired, this speech may be submitted to the Rabbi for review. If you choose to do so, please do so approximately three weeks before the event, in order to allow ample time for revision.

SYNAGOGUE DECORUM

To avoid any embarrassment, please inform your guests regarding the following synagogue policies:

Out of respect for the sanctity of the synagogue service, all cell phones, electronic games, etc., must be turned off at all times while in the Sanctuary. Additionally, use of cell phones anywhere inside the synagogue building is prohibited on Shabbat. There are no pay phones on the Congregation Or Shalom premises.

No photography, video recording or audio recording is permitted anywhere inside the synagogue or on our property, during Shabbat. This includes both inside and outside the building.

Guests are requested not to bring gifts to the synagogue on Shabbat. This includes envelopes.

All guests are requested to dress in appropriate and modest synagogue attire for all services. All males in attendance, Jewish and non-Jewish, are required to wear kippot in the sanctuary, social hall, and throughout the building.

In accordance with synagogue regulations, there is no smoking at any time within the synagogue building. In keeping with Shabbat observance, smoking anywhere on synagogue grounds is also prohibited.

Young children and invited friends of the Bar/Bat Mitzvah child are requested to be supervised by a parent or designated adult at all times during the service to ensure proper decorum and safety. It is the responsibility of the parents of the Bar/Bat Mitzvah to designate those supervisors.

IDEAS FOR PERSONALIZATION AND ENHANCEMENT

Below is a list of suggestions to make your Simcha more meaningful and more personal for you and your family. This list is by no means complete. We encourage you to think creatively and to use our committee members and synagogue staff as resources.

Kehilah

In the spirit of Kehillah (community), we urge families who are planning larger celebrations to invite their child's entire Religious School class to the child's Bar/Bat Mitzvah service and celebration. This enhances the children's sense of connection to each other and also avoids the hurt feelings which arise from being excluded from a classmate's Simcha.

Service Program

You may create a personalized program supplement to be distributed. A draft of the materials must be reviewed by either the Rabbi or the head of the ritual committee. Printed booklets must be delivered to the office by the Thursday prior to your Simcha.

Tzedakah

A meaningful and most appropriate way of marking the feelings of blessing associated with a Bar/Bat Mitzvah is through an act of Tzedakah, sharing your good fortune with those less fortunate. We encourage the Bar/Bat Mitzvah to make a personal contribution independent of his/her parents' contribution and talk about this contribution either on Friday evening or Saturday morning.

Some ideas for tzedakah contributions are as follows:

- MAZON is a Jewish response to world hunger. For details of MAZON works and how you can participate, please call (310)442-0020 or go www.mazon.com.
- Philabundance is now a fixture in the Philadelphia area. Contributions or non-perishable foods will be distributed to the hungry of our city. For more information, contact Philabundance at (215)339-0900 or www.philabundance.org.
- Jewish Federation Mitzvah Food Pantry and Jewish Relief Agency. Both organizations help to feed our Jewish community at large. For more information on the Mitzvah Food pantry visit www.jewishphilly.org. For more information on the Jewish Relief Agency, visit www.jewishrelief.org.
- Jewish National Fund, Israel's tree planting and nature conservation organization, working to make and keep Israel green.
- Magen David Adom is the Jewish Red Cross. For more information, visit www.afmda.org
- Hadassah Hospital is Israel's premier hospital and one of the leading hospitals in the world. For more information, visit www.hadassah-med.com/English
- Neve Hanna is a children's home in southern Israel. For more information, visit www.nevehanna.org

AFTER THE BAR/BAT MITZVAH

The synagogue recognizes that one of the responsibilities of becoming a Jewish adult is the lifelong commitment to continue Jewish study. Becoming Bar or Bat Mitzvah is a very important step in that process of lifelong Jewish learning, but is not to be considered the end but rather the beginning of a Jew's obligation to study Torah as an adult. It is our expectation that B'nai and B'not Mitzvah will complete their studies in Religious School or Day School in the year of Bar/Bat Mitzvah, and will continue their Jewish studies through their High School years.

BAR/BAT MITZVAH CELEBRATION PROCEDURES

Date Reservation Form

At least four months prior to the Bar/Bat Mitzvah date, the family must complete a Date Reservation Form (see Appenix A). This form can be found on our website (<http://www.orshalom.com/OrShalomForms.htm>), picked up in the office, or you can call the office to have the form emailed to you.

You may select any caterer from our approved catering list. In addition, Congregation Or Shalom requires that the outside caterer, florist, photographer, musicians and any other service providers you hire to work at Congregation Or Shalom have a current Certificate of Insurance on file at the synagogue, for limits not less than $1,000,000.

Bimah Flowers

Please provide two floral arrangements to adorn the bimah. The flowers will remain in the synagogue.

Kippot

It is customary to provide personalized or plain kippot for your guests.

Oneg Shabbat/Kiddush Arrangements

It is customary for the Bar/Bat Mitzvah parents to sponsor the Oneg Shabbat on Friday evening and the Kiddush on Saturday morning. The Oneg Shabbat and Kiddush should be planned to accommodate the guests of the family as well as a reasonable number of congregants.

Note: It is the custom at Or Shalom, that the Oneg Shabbat on Friday evening be parve, to accommodate members and guests who may have had meat for dinner.

All arrangements for the Oneg Shabbat and Kiddush must be made with a Kosher caterer (see Appendix B for the approved catering list) or through the Sisterhood (contact Julie Miller at jlmphotomiller@gmail.com) to make the appropriate arrangements).

Invitations

The variety of invitations from which you might choose is extensive. Invitations should feature the Bar/Bat Mitzvah as a religious ceremony and the celebratory party as an enhancement. Please make certain that your invitations reflect the proper starting time for the service. The proper wording on the invitation is "(Child's name) will be called to the Torah as a Bar/Bat Mitzvah." Or, "(Child's name) will become a Bar/Bat Mitzvah". Or, "(Child's name) will participate in the service as a Bar/Bat Mitzvah".

Sisterhood Gift Shop

Ritual items, including tallit, tefillin and kippot , as well as B'nai Mitzvah gifts may be purchased through the Sisterhood Gift Shop. Contact the synagogue office for Gift Shop hours.

Shabbat Appropriate Entertainment

A cappella groups, Israeli folk dancing and group singing at a Bar/Bat Mitzvah luncheon are encouraged because they lend festivity to the occasion. Instrumental or electronic music is permitted on Shabbat but it should maintain the spirit of Shabbat (e.g. no heavy metal music). Flames, candle lighting, writing and the like are not permitted on Shabbat.

Photography

Families may arrange for photographers and/or videographers to come to the synagogue during the week before the Bar/Bat Mitzvah in order to take "set shots" and/or to videotape parts of the service which the Bar/Bat Mitzvah and others may be leading. These arrangements should be made several weeks in advance with the office.

Photography sessions involving religious school students should not be arranged during religious school hours.

As stated above: No photography, video recording or audio recording is permitted anywhere inside the synagogue or on our property, during Shabbat. This includes both inside and outside the building.

Seudat Mitzvah

The Seudat Mitzvah is the meal immediately following the Bar/Bat Mitzvah service.

The policy of our synagogue is that the reception and celebration of a Bar/Bat Mitzvah following the service be considered a seudat mitzvah, an extension of the ceremony itself. The seudat mitzvah is considered an integral and essential part of the celebration and as such should be celebrated in a fashion consistent with the values of the synagogue. Therefore, the meal itself should be kosher.

If the seudat mitzvah is held in the synagogue all food must be prepared and served under strict rabbinic supervision according to the rules and guidelines set by Rabbi Knapp Schechter. A current list of caterers under rabbinic supervision, approved for use in our synagogue, can be found on our website (<http://www.orshalom.com/ApprovedCaterers.htm>). If the seudat mitzvah is to be held away from the synagogue and a caterer not under rabbinic supervision is employed, it is recommended that all food served should be dairy or parve, with no forbidden foods served.

Important: Any food brought into the synagogue must be kosher. Please consult with the Rabbi, before any food is brought into the synagogue by anyone other than an approved caterer.

BAR/BAT MITZVAH RELATED FEES

Note that the following fees are correct as of January 2020 and may be subject to change:

Janitorial Fee	$250
Catering Fee	10-15% of fee charged by caterer (*)

Note: Recently, our Board of Trustees decided to charge caterers for the use of our facilities. Most synagogues in the area follow this practice and have been doing so for years. The intention of this fee is to compensate the synagogue for use of utilities, our kitchen, and for wear and tear. While we realize that the caterers may not absorb this cost and may pass it on to our families, this really is a matter between the caterer and Or Shalom and should not directly involve our families.

BAR/BAT MITZVAH CLASS GIFT

It is our tradition at Or Shalom that the families of the class of students making their Bar/Bat Mitzvah join together to present the synagogue with a gift. While the decision about the actual gift will be made by the class families, the Rabbi and the leadership of the synagogue will provide the Bar/Bat Mitzvah class families a list of items that will be of special meaning and benefit to the synagogue.

Appendix C – Blessings recited before and after an aliyah

Please give copies of these blessing to all your guests that will be honored with an aliyah. The blessings can be found below. To hear them chanted, please copy the following link into your web browser:

Blessings before and after reading of the Torah

Please proceed to the Bimah when your name is called (in Hebrew). Come up on the left side so that you are at the right arm of the reader. The reader will show you the place. Take the corner of your Talit, touch the place and then kiss the corner of your Talit. Then recite this blessing:

Barchu et Adonai ha-m'vorakh

The congregation responds:

Baruch Adonai ha-m'vorakh l'olam va-ed

Repeat the verse that the congregation just chanted, i.e.:

Baruch Adonai ha-m'vorakh l'olam va-ed

Then immediately continue:

Barukh attah Adonai, eloheinu melekh ha-olam, asher behar banu mi-kol ha-amim, v'natan lanu et torato. Barukh attah Adonai, noten ha-torah

After the reader has concluded the portion, you will again be shown the place. Again, take the corner of your Talit and touch the place, kiss the corner of your Talit and then begin:

Barukh attah Adonai, eloheinu melekh ha-olam, asher natan lanu torat emet, v'hayei olam nata b'tokhenu. Barukh attah Adonai, noten ha-torah.

Please remain on the Bimah to witness the next reading. At the conclusion of that reading, please return to your seat.

Appendix G – Participation of Non-Jewish Parents

Or Shalom welcomes blended families and welcomes the participation of non-Jewish parents in the Bar Mitzvah celebration, as much as is possible according to Halacha. Rabbi Knapp Schechter's position is to say "yes" to requests whenever possible and to say "no" only when absolutely necessary.

So, among other ways, a non-Jewish parent can:

- Stand on the bimah, next to his/her child, when that child is reading from the Torah.
- Lead the congregation in the reading of a psalm, in English.
- Lead the congregation, in English, for our country, for peace, or for the congregation.

The non-Jewish parent cannot receive an aliyah, because he she cannot recite the required blessing that includes the words "who has chosen us among all peoples".

If you are a blended family, please discuss your wishes with the Rabbi. You will find that she is extremely accommodating.
