Do you know Unaffiliated Jews in Chester County, Montgomery County and Delaware County?

Do you have Jewish friends or acquaintances who live in Chester County, Montgomery County and Delaware County who are not already members of a synagogue? If you do, why not invite them to one of the upcoming events at Or Shalom. They may have a good time and decide to come back. They may have such a good time that they decide to become members themselves. According to a recent survey by the Jewish Federation, there are many, many unaffiliated Jews in Chester county. We'd love to contact them, but don't know who they are. You can help.

The President's Column

Thank you for this opportunity

As always ... the content of this article is based on my thoughts and not those of the Or Shalom (Board, Rabbi, and Congregation)

I would like to thank you all for the trust you bestowed upon me in allowing me the opportunity to serve as your President for the last 40 years. Ok, I realize it has not been 40 years, but it sure seems longer than our ancestors wandered in the desert. Talking about wondering ... In no way was my presidency a straight path. We all worked together through good times and difficult times. We supported each other through broken heaters and new security systems. We as a community celebrated life events from births to passings. I am proud and humbled by the opportunity and support you provided ... Thank you!

The annual Or Shalom Congregation Meeting is scheduled on 9-Jun-24 @ 10:00am. I expect you will read this this article and immediately block out your calendar. Right after blocking out your calendar, you will call three members and remind them about the meeting. You will also let them know that you expect them to call three members. This is not only an important business meeting, but it is an avenue for the board to share information and elicit feedback from the congregation. I hope you will consider running for a position and support the shul in the coming year. We need everybody's support and participation to provide the greatest value to the community.

One question I have been asking myself since 7-Oct is "Can Or Shalom be doing more to support Israel?". Of course, the answer is yes, but what can we do to help? What are you willing to lead and drive with the help of the Or Shalom community? I hope you give this question some thought and hopefully we can have a meaning dialog about options at the annual meeting. I encourage you to bring suggestions and options, but be prepared to be a leader and helper in implementing the solution.

While I have your attention. Please let me know if you know anybody who has extra plots, they would consider selling at Haym Salomon Memorial Park (Preferably top left section). My great grandparents are there, my grandparents are there, Rita is there and I plan to be there someday. I would also like my kids to have the opportunity to be there. It will be much easier for me to nag them for eternity.

I look forward to seeing y'all at the Congregation Meeting in June.

In G-d we trust,
Andy

Rabbi's Reflections

In Jewish tradition we have a custom of reciting a specific prayer when finishing a section of study. This prayer, called Hadran Alakh, in the ancient tongue of Aramaic, speaks to our commitment to return to our texts; that our goodbye is never final but merely an “I will return to you soon.”

What relevance does this ritual/prayer have for us today? In today's society saying goodbye is frequently avoided; people feel uncomfortable with the feelings associated with goodbyes or we become too busy to take the time to properly say goodbye. But what are we missing when we neglect to say a proper goodbye? There is immense healing, closure, and peace in giving our energy to saying goodbye.

The original text of the Hadran Alakh prayer is:

הדרן עלה מסכת _____ והדרר עלן, דעתן עלה מסכת _____ ודעתך עלן. לא נתנשי מינה מסכת _____ ולא תתנשי מיני, לא בעלמא הדין ולא בעלמא דאתי

Hadran alakh Masekhet _____ ve-hadrakh alan da'atan alakh Masekhet _____ ve-da'atekh alan lo nitnashi minekh Masekhet _____ ve-lo titnashi minan lo be-alma hadin ve-lo be-alma deati

We will return to you, Tractate _____ [fill in the name of the tractate], and you will return to us; our mind is on you, Tractate _____, and your mind is on us; we will not forget you, Tractate _____, and you will not forget us – not in this world and not in the next world. (Hebrew text and translation from Sefaria).

I have revised the traditional Hadran Alakh prayer in order to use it to say goodbye to sacred people and times in our lives. The term “sacred texts” used in this iteration of the prayer is a metaphor for the people and events that have shaped our lives:

I see before me faces of sacred texts. Sacred texts that I cherish and love. Sacred texts that are separate from myself, yet have become part of who I am. I see sacred texts that hold holiness in their words and their beings. Sacred texts that embody our Jewish tradition and our wisdom. Holding closely the memory of seeing the sacred texts within your faces.

מִיֵּן לֹא בַעֲלָמָא הֵדִין וְלֹא בַעֲלָמָא דְאַתֵּי

Hadran alaykhu kitvey hakodesh ve-hadartihu alan da'atan alaykhu kitvey hakodesh ve -da'atkhon alan lo nitnashei minekhon kitvey hakodesh ve-lo titnashu minan lo be-alma ha-din ve-lo be-alma deati

We will return to you, holy, sacred texts before me, and you will return to us; our mind is on you, holy texts, and your mind is on us; we will not forget you, sacred beings, and you will not forget us—not in this world and not in the world to come.

By reciting the Hadran Alakh when we say goodbye to people and important times in our lives we stress that goodbye is never forever but merely a “for right now.” It also stresses the act of remembering each other while not in one other’s company. We may not see someone physically for years but their memory and memories associated with them remain with us and return to us often. This prayer not only expresses an interest in seeing a text or person again but a request to be reminded of them often.

This is my last newsletter article for Or Shalom’s Horizons. I wanted to take this opportunity to write a goodbye to the entire congregation but this does not dismiss my desire to say goodbye in person and hope we can do so over the next few weeks. I hope you’ll join us on Friday, May 3rd for services and use it as a time to be with one another and say goodbye to this chapter of my life and this particular part of Or Shalom’s history. The Or Shalom community has been here for me and my family through really wonderful and joyous moments as well as extremely challenging and sad times, for that I am forever thankful. As the Hadran Alakh prayer emphasizes, this goodbye is not forever, I hope very dearly that it is only a goodbye for right now.

B'shalom,

Rabbi Kami

SOCIAL ACTION NEWS

Make your mother proud!

Mitzvah Circle Foundation: A Truly Worthy Cause

- One in three families are worried about affording baby diapers.
- One in four women have trouble affording feminine protection supplies.
- One in five families experience food insecurity.

Mitzvah Circle supports individuals and families experiencing poverty, homelessness, and serious illness. They serve those walking along life's edge by providing individualized material support.

Please consider making a monetary donation at: <https://mitzvahcircle.org/donate/>

A note from your friendly neighborhood social action chair

Participation in social action projects has fallen off significantly. Here's a list of projects we've done in the past that have fallen by the wayside:

- Mitzvah Minstrels
- Holiday Basket Delivery
- Coat Drive
- Working Women's Wardrobe
- Holiday Toy Drives
- Blood Drive
- Mitzvah Day

If anyone is willing to help me re-launch one of these projects, please email me at migi4@verizon.net. Thanks!

Hebrew Immigrant Aid Society: Israel Response

Within 24 hours of the brutal attacks of October 7, HIAS activated its Emergency Response team to provide life-saving support and critical security information to asylum seekers and displaced families. HIAS will continue to focus on providing basic needs, cash assistance, mental health support, and legal protections to the hundreds of thousands of people displaced. To support HIAS in this effort, go to Act.hias.org

APRIL GAME NIGHT

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Many thanks to all who attended, participated, planned and organized the Sisterhood Shabbat in April. Many were involved, but a special thanks to organizers Brenda and Betsy, Torah chanter Laurie, haftorah chanter Janet, d'var torah - Betsy, and Joel and Brenda for filling in as needed. I was busy getting ready for Shaina's wedding the weeks before so I was not involved until the day before (helping with others set up the food Julie ordered and picked up) and you all did an amazing job.

It's almost time for our closing dinner. We will have a pot luck on Thursday, May 16. Would you like to host it?

I'm also looking for a host for a Game Night in May. Please let me know if you willing to host and what day is best for you.

If you have a book to recommend for our summer book club that has a Jewish theme, let me know.

Thank you.

Mindy Bernstein,
Sisterhood President

CAMBRIDGE SCHOOL AGE PROGRAMS

DEAR PARENTS,

We understand that there is a lot of uncertainty surrounding the start of the school year. Whatever your School Age needs might be, Cambridge is here to provide them. Before School care, After School care, half day Kindergarten Enrichment, or part time/full time Remote Learning through our new CAMBRIDGE ACADEMY, you focus on everything else and leave the remote learning, program oversight, and homework supervision to us!

OPTION ONE: School is open full time, 5 days a week. Cambridge is here for Before and After care and Kindergarten Enrichment for children K - 5.

OPTION TWO: Children K - 5 attend school 2/3 days per week and have Remote Learning 2/3 days per week. Cambridge is here to support your child during Remote Learning. Your child brings their laptop or tablet with them and our Cambridge Academy remote learning program does the rest. We link our program to your school's remote learning program with certified staff for check in and supervision, required meetings and completion of assignments. We provide a safe, controlled environment with a structured program that includes 2 snacks, lunch, outside PT time and Homework monitoring every day. You can rest assured that your child is complying with all the requirements for remote learning in your school district and that Cambridge will guide your child through remote learning, providing the support they need to succeed!

OPTION THREE: Full time Remote Learning for children K - 5. If you choose to have your child attend your school district's virtual learning program remotely, full time, he or she may come to Cambridge for our Cambridge Academy program every day. Just like Option Two, our certified staff will ensure that your child is following all of the guide lines for Remote Learning provided by your school district and, in a safe environment, our talented teachers provide the support your children need to succeed!
